

Edition: 010.20-06

Product catalogue

MDF – Grinding chamber steam pressure control system

The new grinding chamber steam control system allows to adjust your steam pressure in the Refiner system according to the requirement. You can adjust a positive or a negative grinding system pressure. Necessary changes in the PLC system required.

- ▶ Easy retrofit into the existing system
- ▶ Steam pressure in the complete Refiner system can be automatically controlled by PLC system